

Alexandria Gazette. WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 14, 1882. LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, June 14, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States slightly warmer, fair weather, light rains in the northern portions, southerly to westerly winds and lower barometer.

ALEXANDRIA LITIGANTS IN CHICAGO.—The Chicago Times of the 11th says: "In 1878 J. Southgate Yeaton and other adult children of Wm. C. Yeaton, of Alexandria, Va., commenced three suits in the Superior Court to recover about $70,000 worth of property sold by the father from 1872 to 1876. The father, Wm. C. Yeaton, as the children now claim, was the trustee of their mother, but, notwithstanding this, the father took the title and conveyed the land in his own name and in his individual capacity. These cases are remarkable for the number and diversity of the decisions rendered by the different courts. In the first trial the Superior Court found for the defendants; the appellate court reversed the case. The third trial was in favor of the complainants; this decision was reversed by the Supreme Court and the case remanded, and the fifth trial is now held under advisement by Judge Jameson. Owing to some new evidence discovered by the defendants, the complainants felt their position growing daily weaker and the result is a settlement of all the cases. The children of Yeaton will receive $10,700 and the amount of some taxes advanced by them for their entire interest in the land. In consideration of this sum they consent to a decree in favor of the defendants confirming the title of the purchasers. These cases have been very vigorously contested on both sides.

The Washington Star says: "The Chicago papers report the settlement of the Yeaton ejectment suits which have occupied the courts of that city and the Supreme Court of Illinois for three years. Wm. C. Yeaton, a prominent lawyer of Alexandria, bought and sold lots in Chicago to the value of about $70,000. Subsequently, his son-in-law Judge Charles E. Stuart, of that city, believed that he had discovered evidence showing that this property was bought with the proceeds of shares in the old bank of Washington and the Metropolitan and the Patriotic Bank, all of this city, and also the Farmers' Bank of Virginia, which shares belonged to Mrs. Yeaton, a niece of the late Judge Duval, of Prince George's county, Md. These shares were sold by Mr. Yeaton in 1872 and 1873 to sundry bankers in this city and Alexandria for the sum of $10,700, and Mrs. Yeaton's children believing that the Chicago property had originally been bought with this sum and its increase, brought suit against those who had bought lots from their father to recover such lots. The suits were strongly resisted, and much testimony was taken here and in Alexandria from old residents and from bank officers familiar with the history of the old banks of the District of Columbia. The ancient records and books of the Bank of Washington and National Metropolitan Bank were also put in evidence. Under the settlement just concluded the purchasers from Mr. Yeaton retain title to their $70,000 worth of real estate and the six children get the $10,700 realized on their mother's bank shares, which will probably not much more than equal their cost of litigation."

STANDARD LIQUOR LAW.—The cases of sundry liquor dealers for violation of this law was called for a hearing before Judge Meade yesterday. For the prosecution Mr. Samuel G. Brent, as Commonwealth's Attorney, appeared, assisted by Mr. Anthony Armstrong, who had been employed by the Reform Club to assist in the prosecution of the cases. Mr. Edmund Burke appeared for the defense. It was a lengthy argument and the court was adjourned to this day, when Mr. S. G. Brent concluded the argument. It seems from the authorities quoted that the city has gone beyond the powers granted by its charter and has, therefore, rendered the act invalid.

ST. JOHN'S CADET CORPS IN CAMP.—The St. John's Academy Cadets have arrived safely at Tolchester Beach, as will be seen by the following cards, received at this office this morning.

TOLCHESTER, June 12th 5 p. m.—The Cadet Corps of St. John's Academy arrived safely half an hour ago, and is engaged in putting up tents. The ride across the bay was delightful.

TOLCHESTER, Md., June 13th—10 a. m.—The Cadet Corps of St. John's Academy is fully established in camp here and the boys enjoying it greatly. No accidents.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge N. B. Meade presiding.—The will of Ann Sophia White was admitted to probate, with Jeremiah Robb as executor.

A license to keep a bar room was granted to Mrs. George Bear.

A license to celebrate the rites of marriage was granted to Arthur White, a minister of the Baptist church.

Wm. H. Smith gave bond and qualified as City Sergeant.

Henry Holt vs. Thos. Wadley and wife; suggestion vs. M. B. Harlow; evidence heard and case submitted.

THE FASTEST VESSEL IN THE UNITED STATES.—The three masted schooner Wm. Mason, Capt. Whitman Chase, Jr., now unloading ice at the wharf of Messrs. F. A. Reed & Co. flies the broom as the fastest vessel in the United States. The Mason was built in Wilmington, Del., in 1872, for Capt. Alfred French, Taunton, Mass., at a cost of $15,000. She made, besides other fast trips, three round trips one after the other from Boston to Philadelphia in less than 35 days. The vessel is fitted up in fine style.

RESOLUTION TO RESCIND.—At a meeting of Golden Light Lodge of Good Templars, last night, the resolution not to deal with any persons, grocerymen or others, who sell intoxicating liquors in any shape, adopted at a previous meeting, was taken up on a motion to reconsider. After some discussion, in which it was stated that if the resolution was not rescinded forty members of the Lodge would resign, the motion to reconsider was laid on the table till the next meeting.

A PHENOMENON.—About ten o'clock this morning a beautiful and remarkably distinct rainbow appeared in the heavens close behind and entirely encircling the sun. It attracted considerable attention and was a fruitful theme for the superstitious, though evidently produced by the rain cloud through which the rays of old Sol were passing. A number of ladies who were at the wharves waiting for the different excursion boats to leave, concluded to postpone their trips.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth is sending to the clerks of the county courts copies of the proposed amendments to the Constitution in relation to the elective franchise, to be posted in each election district.

Rev. Dr. Poulson's lecture on "Queer People," last night, at 8 o'clock.

THE W. & W. R. R.—By advertisements, which appear elsewhere, it will be seen that considerable reductions have been made in both the passenger and freight rates on the Washington and Western Railroad. Beside the regular reduction in passenger rates, round-trip and commutation tickets have been cut down to a figure that will make the road very popular and greatly increase the travel on it. Close connections will be made by both freight and passenger trains with all the railroad and steamboat lines leaving this city, and every effort will be made to build up the business of the road and to accommodate its patrons.

DEATH OF JOHN R. JOHNSTON.—John R. Johnston, esq., one of the most prominent citizens of the County, died this morning, about 2 o'clock, at his home, after a somewhat protracted illness, aged about sixty-two years. Mr. Johnston had been a magistrate for a number of years, was a school trustee at the time of his death, and had held other positions of honor and trust. He was a leading politician and always took great interest in the affairs of the county and State. His death is deeply regretted by all who knew him. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE JOHNS WILL CASE.—The Johns will case came up in the Circuit Court of Fairfax this afternoon. John Johns, who is contesting the will of his father, Bishop Johns of Virginia, in the Baltimore courts through his counsel, has sued out an injunction to prevent the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Fairfax from furnishing the Baltimore Court with a copy of proceedings showing that the will was properly probated in Virginia, and this injunction was argued this afternoon.

POLICE REPORT.—Patrick O'Neal a discharged soldier, was before the Mayor this morning, charged by officer Goodrich with disorderly conduct on the streets. He was ordered to leave the city.

Three small colored boys charged with stealing some stove tops were discharged.
